

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS All Canadians become aware of the importance of reading and engaging in literacy-related activities as a family; and

WHEREAS by reading to children and engaging in fun literacy activities, parents are actively keeping their own skills sharp, while at the same time strengthening the relationship between the family; and

WHEREAS it is important to practice for 15 minutes every day by reading together as a family, playing a game, writing a letter, or even following a recipe together; and

WHEREAS family literacy reinforces the importance of learning with children as a means of building the knowledge necessary for future skills; and

WHEREAS literacy-related activities positively affect the language development of children; and

WHEREAS Family Literacy Day will celebrate parents and children reading and learning together to become lifelong learners.

THEREFORE NOW, I, Don Scott, Mayor of the Regional Municipality of Wood Buffalo, do hereby proclaim January 27, 2018 as:

"Family Literacy Day"

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunder set my hand and caused to be affixed the seal of the Regional Municipality of Wood Buffalo in Fort McMurray, Alberta, this 23rd day of January 2018.

Don Scott, QC

Mayor
