Description of Service

Project 6 - To develop a Social Sustainability Plan that will define, direct and influence decisions, resources and actions in relation to broad social policy in the RMWB post wildfire.

WBRTF Pillar: People

Target Beneficiaries: RMWB residents.

RMWB Alignment (Objective): People: Enhance the wellbeing of all RMWB residents.

CRCS Alignment (Streams): Community strengthening.

Funding Value: $200,000.00

Narrative

The Social Sustainability Plan project is underway with Moorehouse and Associates Consulting Inc. being awarded the contract after a successful bid submission. The contract has been signed and Purchase Order (PO) has been created. Initial meetings with the consultants and the project committee have taken place. A draft project charter has been developed as well as draft communications and stakeholder relations plan. RMWB Indigenous and Rural Relations are partnering to develop a rural and Indigenous communications and engagement plan. The consultant is currently conducting a literature review and will be making initial contact with key stakeholders in the next few weeks. Further, a community profile and mapping is currently being developed.
