To Whom this may concern,

September 18, 2019

I am writing on behalf of Tanner Fontaine, who is applying for the Games Legacy Grant. Tanner has been with the Barça Academy Edmonton since 2017. Throughout the years, he has demonstrated the Barça values of humility, empathy, ambition, respect, and teamwork in his character, attitude towards his teammates, and in his playing abilities. Players go through a rigorous tryout in order to be accepted into our Academy and Tanner has exceeded our expectations and requirements. Tanner was granted a spot on our High Performance Team.

Barça players from around the world are chosen to represent their country, in the Barça World Cup. The World Cup is held in Barcelona, Spain, every Spring and Tanner was selected to represent Barça Academy Edmonton. He continues to be a valuable part of our Barça Academy.

Please feel free to contact us if you require additional information.

Dear Parents and Players,

We would like to introduce you to a global online community that has been set up by Rakuten for the upcoming Barça Academy World Cup!

Firstly, we have the FC Barcelona Events app, available for iOS and Android. You can follow your child's schedule here, see match results, and share photos with academies all over the world. We would highly recommend that everyone downloads this app, it is quite user-friendly.

iOS: <https://itunes.apple.com/es/app/fc-barcelona-events/id1374124369?mt=8>

Android: <https://play.google.com/store/apps/details?id=cat.fcbarcelona.otzsn4>

As well, we also have the Viber app. This communication hub will be used to share behind-the-scenes photos and up-to-date news on the tournament. Check out the link below:
