4. New and Unfinished Business

4.1. Q&A with National Communities in Bloom Judges

Alex Pearl and John Lohuis, National Communities in Bloom Judges, provided a brief introduction and noted that the last visit National Communities in Bloom made to the Regional Municipality of Wood Buffalo was in 2019. They outlined what a typical visit looks like and spoke on the new evaluation form, elaborating on how evaluations are done, and noting the efforts recognized to mitigate and adapt to climate change which is reflected in several criteria including: community appearance, environmental action, heritage conservation, tree management, landscape, and plant and floral design. Committee members provided feedback on the new evaluation format.

4.2. Nominate your Neighbour Updates

Seville Kwan, Department Administrator, provided an update on the Nominate your Neighbor summer program noting that there have been 49 recognitions received so far. It was further noted that the nomination period closes on August 31, 2021.

4.3. IgNIGHT Partnership Opportunities

Helen Meyer, Chair, and Seville Kwan, Department Administrator, provided an update on the igNIGHT Public Art Exhibition taking place October 1 - October 10, 2021. They noted the program will be held at the Lions Park in the barn at Heritage Village. The theme of the 2021 igNIGHT exhibition is the International Year of Fruits and Vegetables. An overview of partnership opportunities was provided, including exhibition advertising, hosting workshops and providing remaining Flower of the Year seed packets to make available for the public.

4.4. Communities in Bloom Garden at Helen Pacholko Park

Seville Kwan, Department Administrator, noted the Parks Division has been creating a Community Gardens program that will incorporate volunteers and plots to be adopted out by organizations, families and individuals. As part of the program, the Parks Division tours various community gardens and upon visiting the Helen Pacholko Park, it was proposed that the Communities in Bloom Committee help maintain a floral bed garden in the Helen Pacholko Park in 2022. The Committee members shown interest in becoming more present with active community gardens.

4.5. McMurray Metis Community Garden

Chair, Helen Meyer, brought forward the idea of Communities in Bloom getting involved with the McMurray Métis Community Garden as it proposes a great opportunity to build relationships with Indigenous community members as well as partnering with other committee's in the community. The committee expressed their interest in this.

Adjournment
