Since long before 1990 this local establishment has been behind some of the worst things to happen to Fort McMurray.

•1916 they funded the infestation of the landmark now known as the snye with serpents leading to it's abbreviated name which was derived from "snake eye".

•In 1943 they killed the tourism sector of Fort McMurray by supporting bills outlawing the vendors in the historical floating market down in waterways from selling single flush toilets which was helping bring the water levels back up allowing the market to stay in operation.

•2013 THE MISTER

guess who negotiated the terms for our tax dollars being spent on an air sprinkler? Yup.

•The Beast 2016, after their deal with the devil went south and they didn't have enough soul to pay their tab havoc wreaked and the rest is history we'll be recovering from for the next few years and some of us for the rest of our lives.

And last but not least...

•2017 The Dunvegan Gardens, they might not be responsible for any of the other things I've listed but after everything we've been through in the last year you'd think we might have a better sense of community to know that maybe we shouldn't be selfish and take something away from many to benefit a few, but that goes against everything they believe in. Maybe they were raised with different values or none at all, but thats no excuse to try and harm others when finding a solution to both parties problems can be so easily achieved.

How much money and time has gone into this feud thats been fueled by hatred and selfishness?

One look at their property can tell you all you need to know about how close these people are to their community and how much they care to be a part of it.

Zoë Doudiet Don't forget the CAO, mayor and council who can easily fix this but instead want Brad to spend $100 000 to rezone to keep everyone happy. He pays the taxes of commercial land but is small holdings.

Robert R Cummings Every single one of the city councillors need to get voted the fuck out and get some people in there who really care for this city and not using the position as a pay check only

Tom Lewis This is kinda' true...hilarious...and not sure if it's monumentally, brilliant, brave or stupid. I also kind of feel like the FB police have been alerted and litigation could follow. Thanks for the show...and saying what a lot of people are thinking.

Dave Dionne They should move to the states where people sue for being sneezed on. Wretched people who manipulate the law to suit themselves.

JohndandCindy Archer This is an inappropriate picture!!!! Mr Thorne just happens to be a lawyer! We all have occupations that live on this road and support him as a neighbor and friend! The blame belongs to the city they have caused all this injustice to Dun Vegan, the residents on draper road and the community!

Jacqui Ellis The city didn't compile a binder or didn't take 1800 pics over years. Nor did they show the kind of disrespect this man did at a public hearing. Do onto others as you should want them to do onto you. Yes Mr. Thorne is a lawyer which makes it more disappointing. When you start throwing your weight around and using the law to manipulate and bully, it's only a matter of time before that's exposed. Mr. Thorne needs to be more respectful of his neighbours, community and surroundings. Play nice! He was given double the time allotted to others who spoke at this hearing and did not act professional. His position was egotistical. Instead of using this opportunity to present himself and his concerns - he chose to be ignorant belittle people and plain ignorant when asked questions. Agree the city has not managed this very well and that too showed. However the city would not continue the circus with Dunvegan if someone wasn't constantly complaining. To take photos of a man cleaning his yard and doing his best to prepare for the community's re-entry into FM, speaks for his personality and his integrity. So maybe Mr. Thorne needs to step back and reflect. If he wants to be perceived as an honourable citizen then be one.

Adam Cramm Well I find it to be quite appropriate and rather funny. Opinions are like assholes. Everyone has one, but draper has at least two.
