

Attachment 2: Description of Proposed Name

Name Request	Naming Item	Name Origin	Brief Biography
Jina Burn Chess Park	Park	Jina Burn	Jina has been residing in Wood Buffalo since 1997 and has always been an avid volunteer, giving countless hours to various community initiatives and leading many of them. She has been dedicated to the Chess Club she founded, looking after the club's day to day activities and the championships. Jina is also the business owner of Snow White Productions which serves Fort McMurray and the Wood Buffalo Region. Jina Burn also serves on the boards of the Wood Buffalo YMCA and the Fort McMurray Chapter #137 of the Order of the Eastern Star. Jina's commitment to the Order of the Eastern Star was recognized by the Alberta Grand Chapter by her being designated as the grand representative of the Province of Alberta in Utah in 2011. Jina was also nominated and recognized through the Regional Municipality of Wood Buffalo's Citizen Recognition Program and the Mayor and Council's Toast of Champions. Jina graduated from the Leadership Wood Buffalo program and was nominated for a Leadership Award in 2014 and 2015. Jina is the founder of the Fort McMurray Chess Club in 2011 and has been provincially recognized for her efforts. Jina also spearheaded the creation of the outdoor Chess park in Dickinsfield and brought the Alberta Women's Chess Championships to Fort McMurray in 2012 and 2017.